Senate Resolution 121

Senator Hardeman offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, We are honored today to have as a guest of the Senate Honorable Ralph W. Yarborough, Senior United States Senator from Texas; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the Senate to invite this distinguished Texan to address the Senate; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Senate of Texas that the Honorable Ralph W. Yarborough, senior United States Senator from Texas be and he is hereby extended a cordial invitation and welcome to the Senate and that he be invited to address the Session.

The resolution was read and was adopted.

The President appointed Senators Hardeman, Crump and Moore to escort the Honorable Ralph Yarborough accompanied by Mr. Fagan Dickson to the President's Rostrum.

The President presented the Honorable Ralph Yarborough, the Senior Senator from Texas, and our representative in Congress and extended him a warm welcome to the Senate of Texas.

Senator Yarborough was given a standing ovation by the Members of the Senate.

Senator Yarborough addressed the Senate relating some of the highlights of his political life both in Texas and as a Member of the Senate from Texas. He discussed many of the problems facing the Nation today with his thoughts on the subjects as well as the knowledge he had gained in his visits to other countries involved in these problems. Senator Yarborough then thanked the Members for the favors extended him during the election last year.

He then congratulated the membership of the Senate for the cooperation with the Federal Government, their vigor and ability in facing the tasks before them and expressed best wishes to each and every Member present and thanked them for the privilege of being a guest today. Senator Yarborough then extended an invitation to visit him at any time and discuss their problems with him.

Resolution Signed

The President signed in the presence of the Senate after the caption had been read, the following enrolled resolution:

H. C. R. No. 27, Congratulating the "Five Outstanding Young Texans."

Message From the House

Hall of the House of Representatives
Austin, Texas,
February 15, 1965.

Hon. Preston Smith, President of the Senate.

Sir: I am directed by the House to inform the Senate that the House has passed the following:

S. C. R. No. 9, Continuing Water Pollution Study, extending over the entire State of Texas.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY HALLMAN,
Chief Clerk House of Representatives

Senate Resolution 125

Senator Hardeman offered the following resolution:

Be It Resolved, By the Senate of the State of Texas, That the President of the Senate designate a member of the Senate of Texas to read The Declaration of Independence adopted by "The Great Convention" at Washington-on-the-Brazos on March 2, 1836, at an appropriate time during the Session of the Senate on Tuesday, March 2, 1965.

The resolution was read and was adopted.

Senate Resolution 126

Senator Herring offered the following resolution:

Whereas, We are honored to have in the Senate today a group of students from the University of Chile who are in the United States to participate in a series of seminars and conferences on various aspects of American life; and

Whereas, This program, entitled the Chile-Texas Student Leader Seminar in Texas, and its counterpart, the Texas Student Leader Seminar in Chile, is sponsored by the Cultural Exchange Office of the United States Department of State and is administered by the University of Texas' International Office and its director, Dr. Joe W. Neal; and

Whereas, These students, on the basis of their leadership and scholarship, were chosen for this program to exchange experiences, cultural ideas, and points of view with American students; and

Whereas, It is the hope that such exchanges will be mutually beneficial in fostering better understanding between the people of the United States and our good friends of Chile; and

Whereas, The members of this distinguished group of students visiting the Capitol today are Jaime Insunza B., Ledy Aguerro O., Gaston Araya A., Patty Cermanatti C., Jose Correa C., Julio Echeverria M., Estenio Gonzalez M., Carlos Nineto S., German Pequeno R., Soledad Ramirez G., Eduardo Ravani V., and Richardo Whiting A., and are accompanied by Professor Carlos Foresti of the University of Chile; and by Marshall Morris and Cindy Kever, student representatives of the University of Texas; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the Senate of the 59th Legislature to welcome this fine group of young men and women and to signify our sincere interest in strengthening the bonds of friendship between us; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of the Chilean Student Seminar be officially recognized and commended for their participation in this program; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be presented to each member of this student group with our congratulations and good wishes.

HERRING
KAZEN

The resolution was read and was adopted.

The Presiding Officer laid before the Senate on its second reading and passage to engrossment:

S. J. R. No. 6, Proposing an amendment to Article I of the Constitution of Texas by adding thereto a new Section to be known as Section 3a, providing that equality under the law shall not be denied or abridged because of sex; providing that the amendment is self-operative; and providing for the calling of an election and the publication and issuance of the proclamation therefor.

The resolution was read second time.

(President in the Chair.)

Senator Kennard offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend S. J. R. 6 by adding between the word "sex" and the period on line 25, and following the word "sex" as it appears on lines 32 and 34, the following:

A comma after the word "sex" and then the following words: "race, religion or national origin."

SPEARS
SCHWARTZ

The amendment was read.

Senator Watson raised the Point of Order that an amendment to a proposed Constitutional Amendment which prohibited discrimination because of sex, which amendment added discrimination because of "race, religion or national origin" is not germane.

The President sustained the Point of Order.

Senator Hardeman offered the following amendment to the resolution:

Amend S. J. R. No. 6, Section 1, in the paragraph headed "Section 3a" by adding the following language between the period after the word "sex" and before the word "This."

"The provisions of this article shall not be construed to impair any rights, benefits or exemptions now or hereafter conferred by law upon persons of the female sex."

The amendment was read.

Senator Moore moved to table the amendment.

The motion to table was lost.

Question—Shall the amendment by Senator Hardeman to S. J. R. No. 6 be adopted?

Yeas and Nays were demanded.

The amendment by Senator Hardeman to S. J. R. No. 6 was then adopted by the following vote:
